

Keynote Speaker: Meeting the Need of Purpose

Area – Career – Keynote Speaker

Why

The Best Keynote Speaker

To be a difference maker

To bring Hope

Joy

To be of service –

What need will that fulfil? - PURPOSE

Star Point 1 - EARTH -Physical Issue

Earthing my Intention of being a Keynote speaker by taking ACTION

How will it look when I have it?

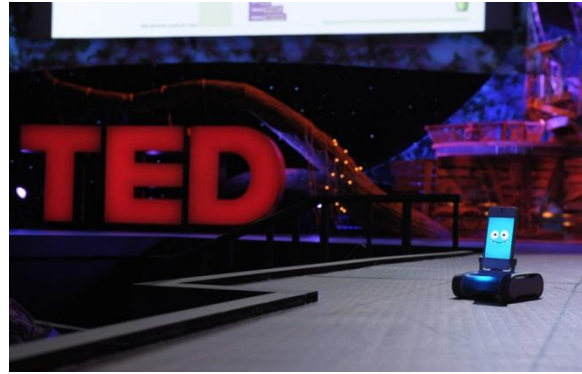

- I would have researched the organization to personalize my speech and would have sent them my power-point the week before so that I know that it works on their devices
- I would find out in advance whether the event would be videoed and of so how do I get a copy of my speech
- I would arrive early to see the stage and check out what I wanted changed
- I would listen to the other speakers so that I could refer back to them and build on what they had said
- I would have liaised with the organization and get clear on the message they are wanting me to impart
- I would research the company so I can refer to CEO etc and other things
- I would have written my own introduction so that I am sure that my credentials are spelt out

- I would demand my solar plexus go small to clear my thoughts so that I am present to the universe
- Connect to higher self and expand the light from my heart
- I would go to the bathroom to make sure there is nothing stuck between my teeth
- I would imagine a string coming out of the top of my head and pulling me up tall so I walk erect – and own the stage
- I would Centre myself before I start by focusing on a point of light on the far wall and then allow my Vision to extend peripherally to the sides of the room
- I would make sure the mike is at the height that is comfortable for me
- I would instruct for some water to be available and not let my mouth go to dry
- I would dress in solid colours so that the focus is on my face
- I would wear pants in case I have to bend down etc and a really well cut blazer, a really good fitting shirt and subtle jewelry
- I would wear heeled shoes to make me carry myself more erect and make sure they were clean and in excellent repair
- I would speak with enthusiasm
- Use voice inflection to create tones that keep people engaged
- I would project my voice so that it is clear a precise.
- I would communicate through humour and through drama to take my audience on a journey
- I would make solid eye contact with people in the room
- I will put the power-point clicker down between slides so I am not fiddling with it and advancing the slides along unawares
- I will engage the audience by getting them to participate
- I would make sure that I deliver value to my clients and leave them with tasks to do
- I would leave time for questions at the end
- I would leave the stage in a quiet and dignified manner
- I would be fully present to the people who may want to speak to me afterwards
- I would ask the corporation for a testimonial
- I would have business cards with me so that I can get further gigs from it
- I would invite people to connect with me on linked in
- I would follow them up and start to create a relationship with them
- I would be contacting groups and organization sending out my introductory one sheet
- I would continuously refine my speech to make it engaging and of great value

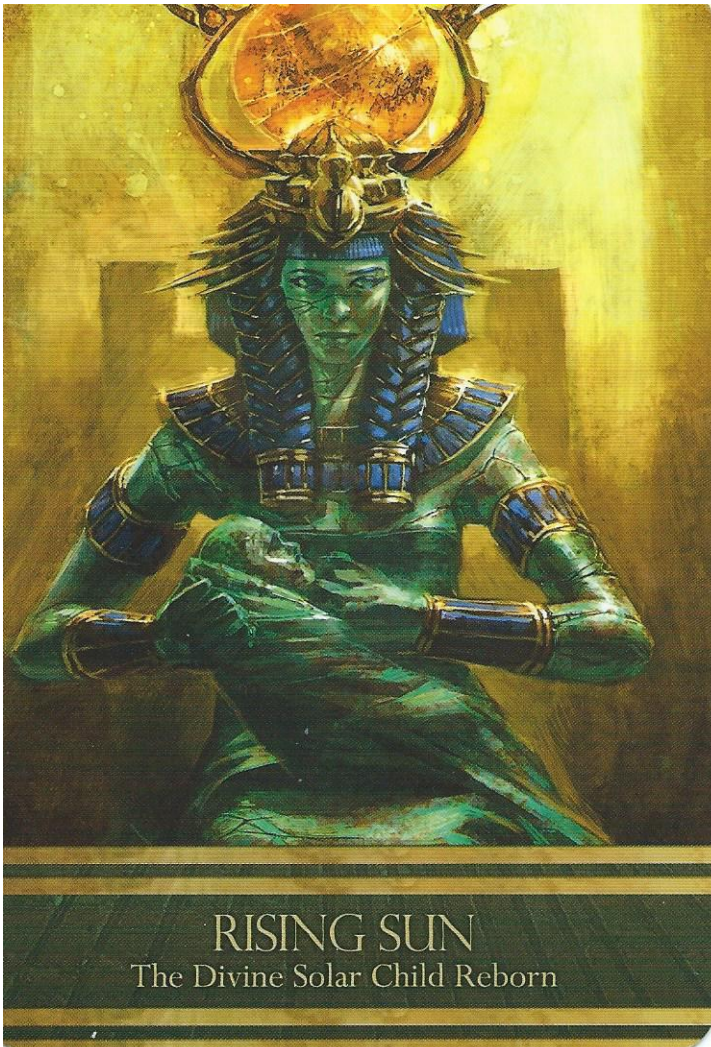

- I would continue to work with a mentor to make sure that I am on the right track
- I would engage a speakers bureau to get my gigs

Rising Sun – Divine Solar Child Reborn

What do I need to achieve this?

Dearest child , reach deep within - whatever scares you push through, do not feel everything needs to be perfect, just frame your talk and the pace it to allow the time to flow. It is really important for you to start really crafting this – every day you must do something that will move you forward.

You have to be content with the fact that you need to create some video blogs and get your stories sorted.

Make sure you are physically looking after yourself – by next year the pressure is going to be intense so you need to spend this last month of the 7 year getting into a routine.

Study everything about being a charismatic speaker - be in touch more with Sam – you need not worry he will give you what you need - just let go of judgement there. Take what you learnt this week end and see how you can implement it. Say yes to everything. You have to start getting rid of what takes your time so that you are free to give this as much attention as possible. This is a new dawn, you are birthing a new you and that takes pressure and pain but believe me it will be so worth it in the end. We love your dedication to our task and making it the zenith of your purpose - allow you mentor to take care of all the stuff and you concentrate on delivering our message to the world.

How will you help me do this?

We will nurture this new you, and keep you accountable to us. We will help you stay centred and not be swayed to change what you will be talking about – people need to be engaged with life – they need to understand how to do this. We will bring you back to working your white ray so that you bridge both emotions and consciousness.

We will clear the path and give you the strength to go on when your heart flags. Your intuition needs to be sharp and you physically need to act on every synchronicity. We will help you differentiate between those who are genuine and those that just want to use you. We will create disruptive messages for you so that people have to confront their limited thinking and fears.

We will also encourage you to out in very firm boundaries because between your dedication to your people in Abundant Life and getting this career up there is going to be very little down time – so you must be open to us. We will show you the wisdom that will be gained from this journey and how to utilize it to take you to the next mountain tip experience - we are also going to direct you on nutrition because your body needs much better support so we are birthing the new you and everything is going to be turned upside down.

Actual meaning of the card

Step 2: Water - How the issue affects my feelings

When I am not meeting my need for Purpose these are some of the emotions that can cause me to procrastinate

Emotion How I React

Frustrated Become super tense and hold it in my muscles – also makes me irritable
Can become unproductive

Disheartened Will take the slippery slope slide down into deep depression – have a tantrum and say I am not going to do it now

Alienated Tend to isolate myself and find that things hold no interest for me

My Dearest Beloved Frustrated what are you are to teach me in regard to my need for Purpose?

Child purpose is not something you do - you have misunderstood this. Purpose is awareness and it is something you are. It is the power of uninterrupted focus on your goal. I come to teach you when you take your eyes off your goal. The tenseness in your muscle is the unused energy that has been stored instead of being allowed to flow in the direction of your goal. Your irritability is your souk who feels like a curbed horse whose bit is reined in and held tight and it is not given its head to express its freedom through movement. You become unproductive so I can alert you to refocus and not waste energy on menial tasks that are not in alignment with your purpose to be the great speaker we need you to be

My Dearest Beloved “Disheartened” what are you here to teach me in regard to my need for Purpose?

Child isn't it obvious that if you are disheartened you are no longer coming from heart and you are back in your head trying to reason and outrun the old neural nets that reside there. Remember that depression is beliefs that have run out of steam. My job is to bring you back to your heart and come from there to achieve your purpose of being our voice. Your tantrums actually instill energy back into your body – just try speaking to us about your needs though would be a lot easier

My Dearest Beloved “Alienated” what are you here to teach me in regard to my need for Purpose?

My dearest child you have used me all your life when you fear disappointment of “You are not going to get that now” It us how you survived but I also pull you away so that you don't get caught up in talking to others and then you are forced to come and talk with the brotherhood. Your purpose is oxygen to the flame to you and that is where your joy lies – others simply cannot understand that you are truly not interested in the things if the world - whilst you can appreciate them they leave you empty you do not have to conform to any other person's opinion child just maintain your focus

How this aligns with my Numbers 28/10

Frustrated 1 – caused by not using my creative energy in a positive way which in turn self destructive

0 – magnifies this and tends to cause the unexpressed energy and Libran nature causes me to vacillate – frustrating me even more

Disheartened 2 – haven't been mindful if keeping strong boundaries up from things that pull me away from my purpose – getting caught up in earthly woes instead of coming from heart. I need to be conscious of raising my drawbridge in these times

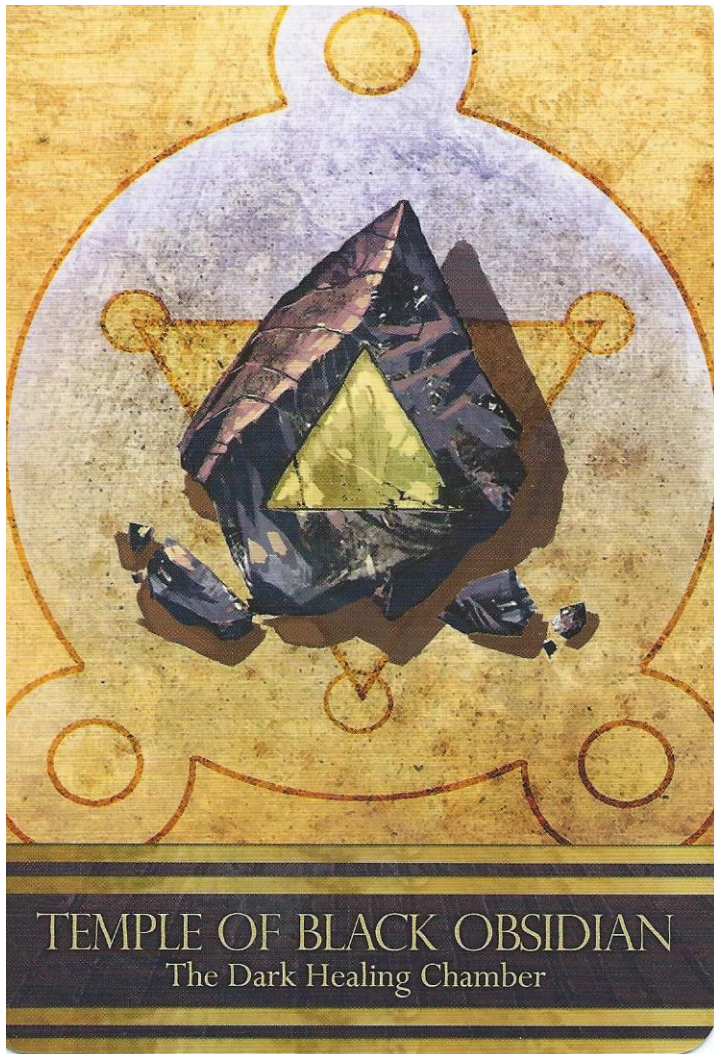

Alienated 2 - Withdrawal is a common theme for the energy of 2 in my numbers I need to take back my own authority and instead of retreating move head first into what is depleting my energy

0 – Amplifies the feeling and I lose my ability to access my intuition then I feel alienated from the universe

Step 2

'How will I feel when I have this Purpose?'

Vibration	Feeling
Spiritually	I will feel complete, in flow and at one with the universe I will feel this reverberating in each and every cell of my body I will feel home. I will feel God's love
Mentally	I will be alert to the voice of the Universe. I will be detached from limited thought My mental body will flow through the other lower bodies and create the peace within and without of my body
Emotionally	I will feel alive and passionate The feeling of curiosity will pervade me I feel like a champion I will feel the blessing of humbleness as I act in the service of the Universe. I will feel complete and whole. I will feel self-love.
Physically	I will feel strong. My energy fields will be vibrant, my health be at an will optimal level I will have endless energy for my speaking joy

Card for Water

Temple of the Black Obsidian

Who or what will help me feel these emotions on all levels

Dearest Sister of the Light it is in the temple of your heart that you will find the answers to the connection that needs to be maintained so that we can flow through you.

As you connect to the higher vibrations of joy and love you will find that the lower emotions will serve purely to keep your path tight. We are so excited for how the paths are going to open for you. Every emotion must be evaluated and relegated to where it creates the greatest amount of power – that which is no longer useful changes in an instant. It is in the silence of the heart not the confusion of the mind that all answers lay. Come sit with us as we have much to share

How will I act with “Purpose?”

Emotionally	Action
Spiritually I will feel complete, in flow and at one with the universe I will feel this reverberating in each and every cell of my body I will feel home. I will feel God’s love	I will consciously connect my two fields together and open my heart for the universe within to shine through. I will keep my energy fields clean and use the power awareness to make sure I am not losing energy I will meditate on my heart to feel secure inside I will converse continuously with the universe and seek their counsel on all matters
Mentally I will be alert to the voice of the Universe. I will be detached from limited thought My mental body will flow through the other lower bodies and create the peace within and without of my body	I will learn to still my mind through Benson’s technique I will deliberately disengage from limited thought and do creation walk for new neural nets I will use higher thought to cleanse the lower body I will send loving thoughts to my body to repair years of damage
Emotionally I will feel alive and passionate The feeling of curiosity will pervade me I feel like a champion I will feel the blessing of humbleness as I act in the service of the Universe. I will feel complete and whole. I will feel self-love.	I will get back out in nature. I will locate and be with like-minded people. I will keep my ego in service so that does not try to be the master I will let go of judgement and experience love Unconditional positive regard

Physically

I will feel strong.

My energy fields will be vibrant, my health be at an will optimal level

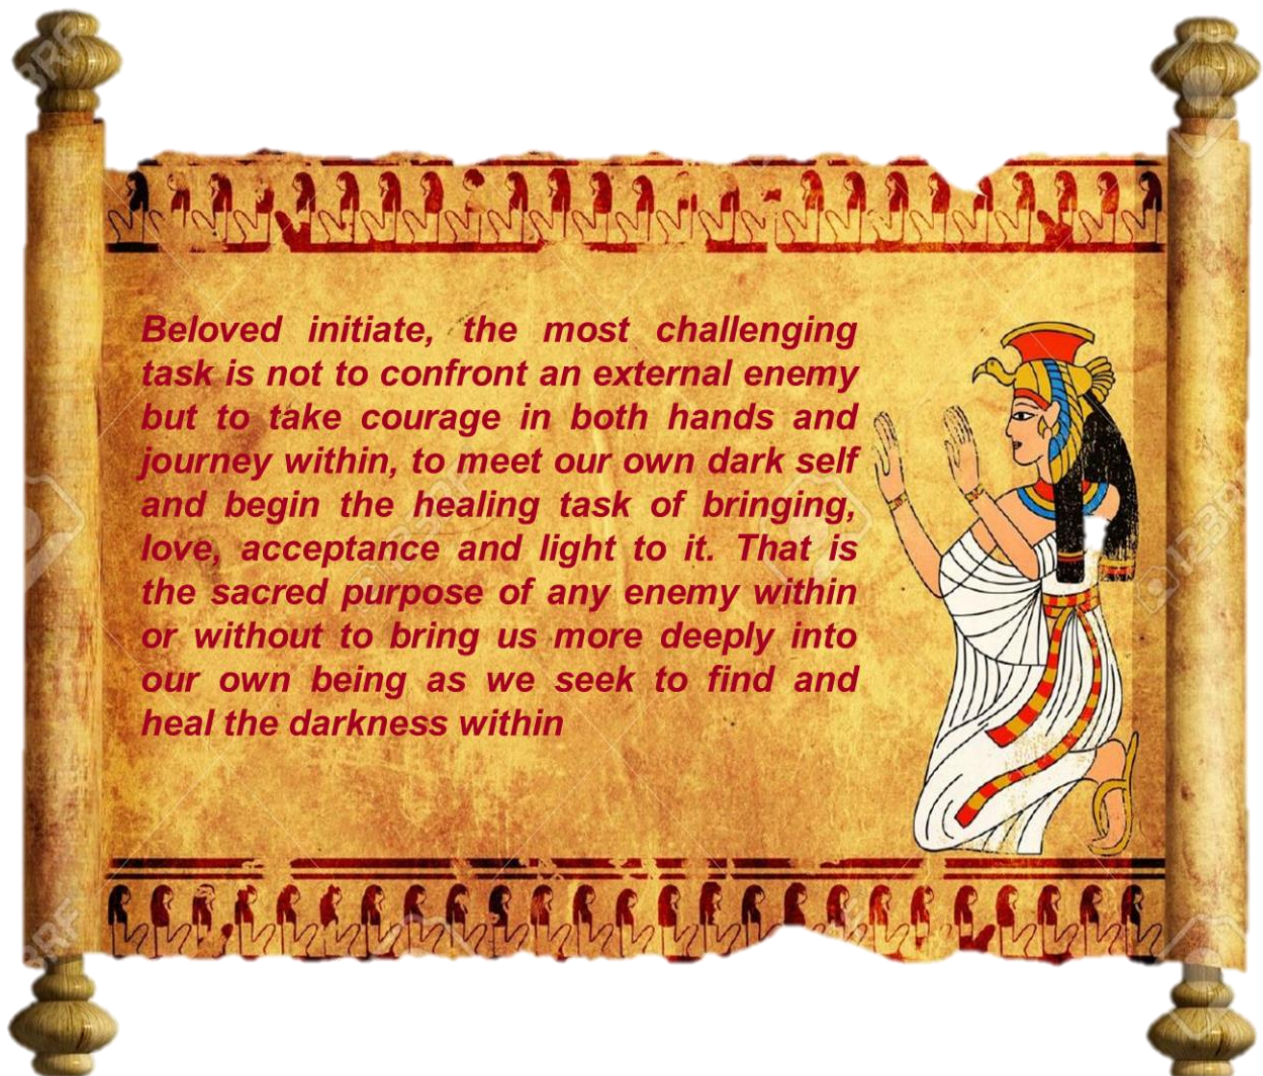

I will have endless energy for my speaking joy

I will feed nourishing higher vibrational foods to my body

I will keep the environment that I live in free of negative energy

I will run through a set of physical exercises for my throat

Cards Actual Message

Step 3 AIR - how the issue affects my thoughts

When I tried to create my desire to meet my need of PURPOSE in the past these were some of the thoughts that played in my mind

- Don't know what to niche it down to, to talk about
- How do I turn metaphysical principles into corporate jargon?
- The industry is too critical
- Other people have a more refined message
- Why am I putting myself under this pressure to do this?
- I am too exhausted to put the time in to get another business happening
- I am overwhelmed with what is in my plate presently
- There are too many speakers out there already
- I can't do a memorized 1 hour speech I need to be spontaneous

Some of what "The Committee of They" whispers to me!

Corporates are changing in the style of speaker they want. They probably wouldn't be interested in what you are talking about	People who can't get work as a speaker
You are too fat to be on stage	Mother
Corporates won't understand your concepts	Well-meaning business friends
You haven't been in corporate so why would they want to listen to you	People I know who are in corporate coaching
I haven't got anything to wear that looks ok	My silly head

Inner Child still trying to deal with these illusions

Primary School Prep aged 5 got humiliated for being the fat kid. Had that repeated and repeated by family, extended family and teachers right through my school years so this child still has trouble being in the limelight, having photos taken and watching herself in videos. I won the best musician in grade 5 but head nun said because there were not any others taking the exam for that grade I wasn't entitled to that certificate – Passed grade 2 music with a 99.5 but she thought that possibly others would have done better than that. Inner child gets very tense when she is compared to others. We are working through this even managed to watch my last speech on video without her having a meltdown). Teachers never ever got what I was presenting as an argument for their ridiculous blinkered ideas – got in troupe a lot for that right from primary. So for this little Inner Child exposure brings her a lot of pain – but we will get there.

Why I picked the weaknesses I did in my Personality Profile in regard to not achieving my need for PURPOSE

Weakness	Thoughts
Resistant	If you don't put yourself out there you are never going to be disappointed
Show Off	If I shined I was criticized so in the end I retreated behind the wall
Permissive	I would let others opinions influence me because I was unable to have My desires – old belief my needs don't matter
Wants Credit	My heart wanted to be seen but my ego was terrified of being exposed

How my thoughts align with the negative polarity of my numbers and denied my need for purpose

2. Co-operation and Balance Feels overwhelmed, resistant and reactive;
Starts out overly helpful and the suddenly withdraws, codependent, resentment

Thoughts that can dominate here – Too hard, Untrusting, looking for criticism

“Too Hard” please share with me what you are here to teach me.

Dearest child my duty is to help you to always reconnect with courage – without me you would have never found the powerful energy of courage to propel you forward. I also help you reach deep and expand your ability to think outside the box and be attuned to the mind of the creative God. I am one of your greatest advocates and my desire is to see you triumph, dearest friend when I am here you know it is time for rapid growth, courage and triumph.

“Untrusting” please share with me what you are here to teach me

Child my gift to you is to stop you giving your powers away as you did in your early life and push you back into relying on you so that you could learn the skills and talents that you have. My major task is to assist you in having to learn to hear your intuition instead of asking others for permission to shine. I am very important to keeping you connected to your Higher Self and build that trust instead of placing your destiny in the hands of a human

“Looking for Criticism” please share with me what you are here to teach me

My task is to help you build resilience but also to remain humble. It is important to be reflective on the job done rather than puff yourself up and go into denial. Over time you will understand that it is critique from those that desire your success and criticism from those who are too scared to embrace the challenges that you take on. I am also here to get you to look for self-love rather than self-hate to replace the addictive chemicals of self hatred

8. Abundance and Power

Afraid of yet preoccupied with issues of money
Power, control and recognition. Sabotages the self

Thoughts that can dominate here –

“Authority figures want to control me.”

“Authority Figures” please share with me what you are here to teach me

We are here to force you to take back your God given self authority. Whist people can determine whether they employ you or not you can stand in your own faith that if they don't they are not right for you. It is not that they are, bad, mean or shortsighted to your talent. It is that we don't want you on their stage because it is not the right path for you. We are also empowering you to stand up for what you know is right for you.

1. Creativity and Confidence

Feels blocked, stuck, frustrated, ill, lethargic
Insecure, sabotages the self

Thoughts that can dominate here –

Will be misunderstood, You won't fit in corporate

“Misunderstood” please share with me what you are here to teach me

I am here to help you become crystal clear about your message and simplify so that it is easy for a lay person to understand it. I also come to help you become secure in you own delivery so that your enthusiasm and charisma leads people on a journey of their own self-discovery. I am also here to help you understand that your message is for ears that are ready and willing to hear – your only task it to share the truth and then the angels will nurture it in the hearts of man.

“Won't fit in” please share with me what you are here to teach me

We don't want you to fit in, we want people to be intrigued and ask more questions and seek greater – leaders are not created to fit in they are created to blaze trails. Your childhood was orchestrated to teach you the power pf being a fringe dweller and to have the resilience to rely on yourself. We would not have sent you in this direction if it wasn't the right path

0. Inner Gifts

Hypersensitive and nervous, stubborn
Sarcastic, caustic expression, confused
By internal feelings or intuitions

Thoughts that can dominate here -

I don't want to let the Universe down
It's too much pressure

“Let the Universe down” please share with me what you are here to teach me

Child how could you even think this, your fight through fear like a lion and your determination to follow our command is exemplary. This thought is actually here to make you see that your heart is so attuned to ours that there is no possibility of separation. This thought says STOP! You are telling yourself a story.

“Too much pressure” please share with me what you are here to teach me

I come to show you when you have moved out of faith and have gone back into reasoning. It is not for you to build, it is for you to be willing to observe and act on the synchronicities been moving you steadily forward all your life. When you feel me it is time to realign with purpose.

The ways I sabotaged myself in the past in pursuit of my purpose:

BRULES:

- You will never amount to anything
- You are too selfish
- You better marry somebody rich because you will never be any good with money
- You are not smart enough
- You are a distraction and an annoyance
- You talk too much
- You're not going to get that now

CRULES:

- Who do you think you are, you're a nothing your mother was right you will never amount to anything!
- You never care about anyone else but yourself, nice girls don't act this way
- You are too common, who would ever take you seriously
- You're a fraud, people will see right through you that you don't know anything
- People won't like you because you are fat and fat people are lazy
- Your voice is too irritating
- People don't like a know it all

SPRULES:

- I kept deferring from approaching the right course of action
- I refused to go to networking meetings where I would have met people who needed speakers
- I would lose weight and then sabotage it
- I would attract people who would let me down
- I would attract people who ripped me off financially
- I put others needs way before my desires

The situations I drew into my life that confirmed that I could not have my need of PURPOSE:

- Attracted a supposed coach who promised me the moon but never delivered and I lost a lot of money
- I would bring people into my life that wanted to use my credibility to further their business under the guise of a joint venture
- I got caught up in the promises and failed to listen to the universe
- I would become despondent and attract illness into my life
- I felt I couldn't do Abundant Life and my speaking career at the same time so I vacillated
- Attracted people who criticized my appearance and voice
- I failed to delegate because I had lost all trust in people

Step 2: Be Purpose

Spiritually - I am absolute flow and obedience to my cause

Mentally - I am higher vibrational thought

Emotionally - I am attuned to the direction my emotions are leading me

Physically - I attuned to any energy lose and replenish it immediately

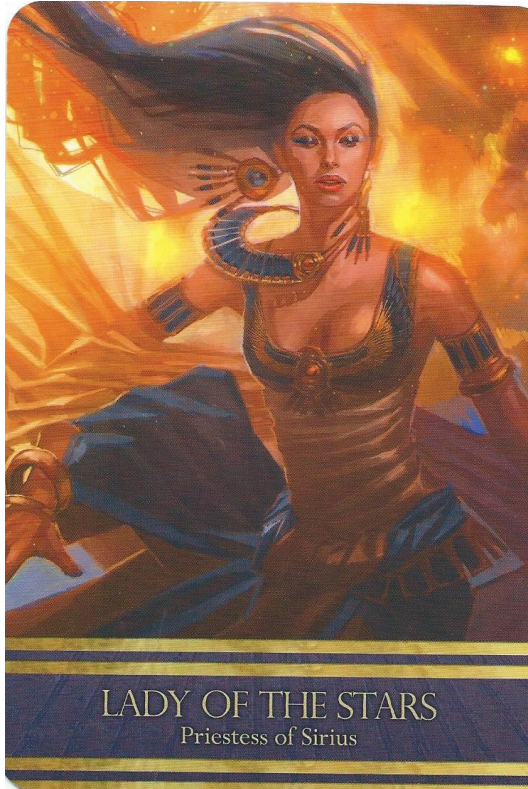

Step 3: RE-EARTHING THE DESIRE

How will I act holistically when I am a Keynote Speaker living my need – PURPOSE

SPIRITUALLY	MENTALLY	EMOTIONALLY	PHYSICALLY
I will consciously set my intention to align with the universe to flow through me when I am speaking	My message comes from my higher mental body and is driven from purpose not from ego	As I speak I will connect to higher emotional states that ignite hope in my audience	I will expand my energy and embrace my message with power and clarity and confidence

Lady of the Stars – Priestess of Sirius

WHAT DO I NEED TO DO TO ACHIEVE THIS STATE OF HIGHER BEING?

Dearest child, to stay in a state of Higher Being we need you to let go of wondering how you can achieve the task at hand this is our desire for you to just be the conduit through which we will reach out to other Children of the Light. The reason we have you in the corporate sector is because there are Sleepers in there who have not realized that they are Star Seeds. For the world to evolve to a higher frequency we need the world of business to shift also. This is the tough campaign and we needed a seasoned warrior to achieve it. You know in your heart the quality of work you achieved in the birth of Egypt, the release of the Book of Secrets in Middle Ages, where you revealed the truth between the lines to the chosen few and in the 1800's where you came for a short incarnation to make an impact upon the wealthy to start to acknowledge the degradation of the poor, so once again we have called on you to take up the banner of Warrior of Light, Collector of Souls.

During you're your 20 and 30 years you had to be asleep to the remembering until the time was ripe for the vibration necessary to be birthed but the remembering was so strong when you were a child – do you remember the shields you used to place upon the land? Do you remember how each night you returned to the stars along the path of the Milky Way? There is a great need now for these people in the corporate sector to awake and for you to get amongst the world leaders and the best way we could achieve that was to get you in their faces- they have to come to you and be watered with our energy so that seed takes root and starts to grow. The world is full of good companies that truly want to make a difference and you child are the person most qualified to be in there. Your ability to allow us to speak is exemplary, your heart has proven its power over and over again, you know that you are God expressing creativity through you and you humbly get your humanness out of the way so the brotherhood can reach through you. The body you reside in has old memories that need to be removed – they are not of you they are of a race that was fearful of their existence - it is no part of your pedigree - you walked into these memories they are not of you - you have just become so immersed into the stories that you were fooled into believing they were yours. These lower thoughts are being reprogrammed as we speak. We apologize that it has been disconcerting and that you have been off balance but it was a necessary part of recalibration. Now that you have begun to re-centre your ability to bring wisdom through will become even more heightened – so there is nothing to fear about not being able do this – go to the future 10 years and see the result of your effort and hold on to it.

Lady of the stars how will you help me achieve this state of being?

Every breath you take will hold my energy, it will surge through your very being, like the Zephyrs in Egypt playing amongst the reeds bringing relief to heat at end of the day. I am you and you are me, we cannot separate from each other. The glories of the stars are within our body and they pulsate within your veins. Together we will craft the words that the world needs to hear and hide the truth of our message in the lilt of your speech. Those who are asleep will be touched and awakened. As ever we are not here to meddle in the affairs of man, our only task will be to awaken the Star Seeds so there is no pressure to be anything else than that. Together we conquered apathy and awaked the Children of the Light in the past and now we will do this again. There is nothing to fear, nothing to do other than hear my voice and take action when I whisper to you. Let me assure you it will be a glorious journey not in the way man would expect but in the vibration of the energy that together we will bring. I will call you to stop rushing when you forget to take time to stop and contemplate. I will remind you of how to set the White Ray ablaze within yourself so you become the bridge for others to find their way. Our hearts are so joy filled as the vibrations start to unfold for the raising of energy for Ascension. Do not get caught up in the hype of this, so many calling themselves the way – you know there is only one way and each person must walk that path alone – each of these are like golden strands of hair separate from the other but united at the crown. There are no saviours there are only willing souls desiring connection.

Be at peace now for everything is taken care of.

Sirius is a Celestial Goddess, a Star of unconditional love and wisdom at an extremely high vibration. It brings deep soul awakening, spiritual gifts and a high capacity for Divine Service. Lady of the Stars is also an empowerment of all other Oracles in the deck. She tells you to pay attention because something significant is about to taking place right now

Negative patterns from my numbers

2 - Co-operation and Balance

- ❖ Withdraws
- ❖ Wait for the other party to make the first move when they are at fault instead of stating clearly my disappointment
- ❖ Over reactive when I feel let down
- ❖ Can become stubborn and not address problems
- ❖ Can put up walls and deny how important my purpose is so I don't have to feel the disappointment of "you are not going to get that now" Brule
- ❖ Can withdraw if I feel the other person is not genuine
- ❖ When I am unsure what is required I can get into overwhelm

8 - Abundance and Power

- ❖ Will reject authority of another if I do not have respect for them or feel they walk their talk instead of taking the wisdom they may be offering even if they don't use it themselves
- ❖ Feel confused about how I can work in my desire with current commitments
- ❖ Get frustrated when I don't get feedback on how to move forward based on I have just delivered
- ❖ Rejecting the authority and withdrawing sabotages my efforts to get ahead

1 - Creativity and Confidence

- ❖ Gets frustrated when I cannot access creative speech rather than a memorized speech
- ❖ Get depleted from energy when I don't have a specific path to follow Will resort to addictive patterns such as mindless eating when I feel stressed due to lack of direction
- ❖ Can over criticize when reviewing my performance
- ❖ Will often not look at the videos of me speaking because it will spiral me down into the valley of the Crules which in turn will make me turn to addictive behavior

0 - Inner Gifts

- ❖ Can be hypersensitive to people who I feel are smoozing me and not being genuine
- ❖ Can be very sarcastic in my mind to self and any wolves in sheep's clothing
- ❖ Can get confused between playing the game just to where I need to get or being suborn and want to just do it my way
- ❖ Get irritable with those around me who are completely innocent to my speaking career and can become snappy and caustic (Totally unfair to them)
- ❖ Can stubbornly not give myself me time until I have reached my goal which exhausts me

How I feel when I do not meet my need for "Purpose"

Who or What will help me break my old Sabotaging Habits?

Proper Burial for Freedom Sacrifice to Osiris – Lord of the Dead

Child, how I have longed for you to come to my Chamber into the hall of Judgement so that we can show you that all that was has now passed away. You have been recalibrated, the husk is broken and you are emerging. There is no need to look back or to worry about where you are going, the vibration is set nothing can cut it or disturb it. The work you did at the weekend is realigning all of your cells and igniting the memories from the stars from whence you come. You understand what I am saying; you are reborn, risen from the ashes as you shed the layers of the disguise that you used to walk this plane. Already you feel both sides of your brain pulsating together. The misalignment that was causing you to fall to the left is cleared and logic is now serving creative Intuition as it always should have. Your strong analytical mind was dominating your power and caused you to go to sleep to who you were resulting in you to go off balance. Anubis has followed you all these long days, calling you back, protecting you and guiding you back to the light. Your entombment of the last 12 months has been absolutely necessary so that we could isolate you and keep you in a weakened state to cut away the fetters that were keeping you from soaring. This is almost complete and the radiance that fills your body will soon be there for those who know to see it. We are so proud of you, you never let go despite your trials and we feel proud to call you sister. That which you started so long ago will now come into fruition. Do not worry about those who do not understand it is not their journey to in this carnation

There is much to share, your charges are awakening like the lilies on the Nile opening their petals to embrace the sun – our Father Ra. I know you feel a heavy burden for them, that you are intense in them remembering who they are but you cannot burn yourself out here. Only give to those who are ready, separate them and nurture them child – those that are thirsty will come and drink, but they must have loved themselves enough to do the work that we have set for them. This separates those that wish for glory of union and those that shine that glory.

How will you help me bring in and stabilize my new habits?

There is nothing to bring in you only have to be it. Your body is vibrating a very fine frequency and it cannot deal with contamination. We will remind you by setting up a warning reaction each time you partake in anything that seeks to interrupt that frequency. There is nothing to do now there is only the charge to Be. Step back fully into your power. Honour yourself and show the world who your truly are.

Step 5 My dearest beloved higher Self why is it important for me to become a global Speaker to meet my need if purpose?

Child you were born for this, your contract was sealed eons ago before the earth was born, that at this time you would return to earth to wake up the Star seeds. Our job is to facilitate that happening and make sure everything is peeled away that would restrict the purity of the message of Hope moving through.

You and I know we serve the universe, that our life is an empty shell if we are not in that flow. Our heart beats wildly with the desire to be who we truly are – I need you and you need me together we are one - spirit it lost without the physical to reside fully in and be able to work through. And the physical is plunged into darkness and fear when it feels alone and disconnected from spirit. I am always here but what separates us is the belief in separation, that man is somehow disconnected from Source but you know that this is impossible because with life there is force the two cannot be separated – when source leaves the body it is left to return to the clay from which it was molded. Your purpose is your life, there is no compromise – we had to leave it till now because you now have statesmanship, you have experience you have a history to share with the world. It is your experiences that live in each and every other person that resonates with them when you speak. So many impart flawed knowledge but you impart life and show that to come from the heart, to desire to serve unconditionally your purpose – no excuses, no bargaining, no limitations that, that is the way of a joyful journey and that is the way of unlocking the secrets of life. Do not even think of the future, stay heart space present in each moment and the frequency that you are in tune with will pull you to your destination.

The Purpose of the Number 28/10

Those on the 28/10 path are here to work through issues combining material success and creative energy, applying their creative energy and intuitive gifts in the service of others, guiding with authority and compassion.

28/10's shine when they become self-sufficient and take control of their own life

When these gifted, inspiring people come into their full confidence and authority, they share gifts and energy to lead and uplift others

I empower people to access their creative ability to seek out and create their own powerful lives

Meeting my need through my first number 2 is to mature to balance & diplomacy

By working in harmony with my higher self I can live in the world whilst not being of the world. I can navigate the two worlds with diplomacy that allows people to make up their own mind rather than preached at and help them to bring the polarity of form and spirit together to live peacefully with each other

Living my values through my second number 8 is to mature into productivity & generosity

Through journeying through different challenges over time I had to take back my own authority to be able to stand against criticism and maybe challenge when I present disruptive ideas especially around the medical world. This supports meeting my need for purpose through using the union of both soul and spirit to deliver a powerful address that will open the door for people to remember who they are.

Evolving and expanding my Working Number 10's energies being 1. Creativity & confidence & 0 Atunement & Service

The universe is a powerful and ever expanding source of creativity. Constantly evolving, birthing, living and destroying what it has built to rise again glorified as the phoenix that represents it.

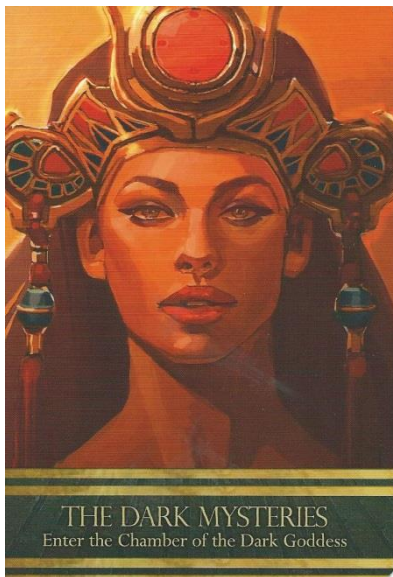

My purpose of my 1 energy is to expand my vibrational field, live in it, hone it and die to limited beliefs and keep expanding and birthing into higher vibrations of myself in union of both physical and spiritual bodies to form the power of the Merkaba so that the pulse of the inverse can be transmitted to the earth. In the process of doing this I align with the force that ignites my energy which brings about a harmonious, responsive relationship between the dual aspects of myself. The culmination of this union expands my heart to self-compassion which in turn builds compassion in me for others. This allows the energy of purpose to expand as my desire to be of service to the Universe to be the conduit through which they reach out to the world and help people become empowered difference makers

“Who or what will help me find the heart of the matter?”

The Dark Mysteries – Enter the chamber of the Dark Goddess

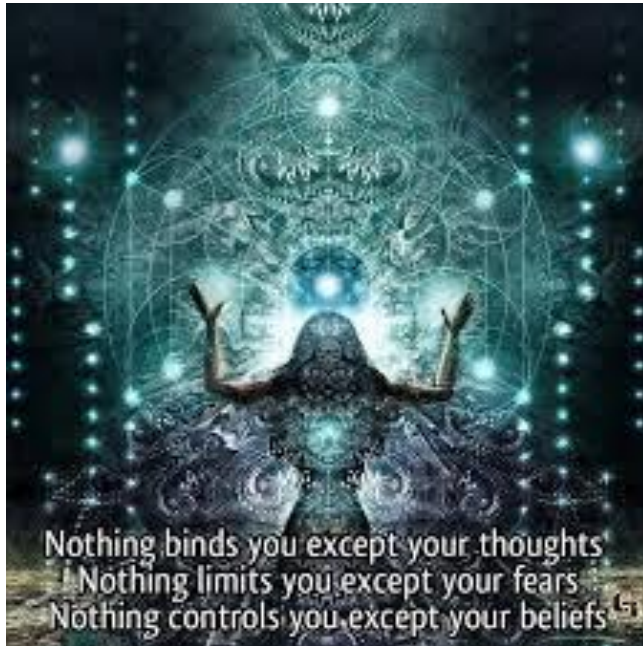

“What do I need to do to integrate this is my heart?”

Just be humble and open and feed the desire to serve, there is nothing else necessary for this is the work of the Universe not the feeble mind of man that can't but help judge their world

“How will you help me to integrate this is my heart?”

My dearest Beloved Goddess of the Dark Mysteries I beseech you to give me the lighted path to be able to live my need for purpose through being a global speaker delivering the good news of Hope.

Dearest sister for you and I are one, I will take you deep into the chamber of your heart into the Halls of the Amenti – you know we started this with the Arcturians but they are not awake enough to understand yet – their hearts need to desire it above all else as yours does. Within the Halls of Amenti we will converse with the Brotherhood and open the seals in the next part of the Universal awakening. Deep, deep, in your heart is the spark of life that perpetuates the force of the Universe, it has a pulse sending out vibration to reconnect with Source just like the black box of a plane – the Universe is constantly tuned in to that pulse and therefore life is present. I am going to reveal to you what was sealed at the time of the burning Library of Alexandria – nothing was lost, we sealed it in the hearts of the Star Seeds and each one carries a part of it in their Ray. This was necessary for if it was to fall into the hands of those whose heart is not of pure intent the world would be cast into perpetual darkness. I will be the voice of Source that leads those who are waking to remember their wisdom. In the seen world we will send out frequency as you speak that ignites the heart spark and sets in motion the desire to return to the authentic self. This will be down in seemingly simple logic but in truth the vibration will be so powerful that those who are ready cannot resist the urge to return to self. Remember we are not involved in the affairs and reasoning of man, we are here simply to wake up the Light Warriors. As each one starts to shine their Ray all that is dark must fall away. You and I dear Sister have done this before, long before man was given the power that they were in Atlantis – this will never ever happen again because when man thinks they can control the Universe they will be struck down, just as all the great civilizations fell as they became puffed up and filled with ego. The Great flood was the result of the sinking of Atlantis because of the fault lines that were opened up and the power released from the crystals continued to reverberate around the world for centuries as Crystals continued to explode and force out their contaminated energy so they could cleanse themselves for this moment. There is much we will discuss but that is not for this place here to reveal.

So into the Halls of Amenti we will descend and there an intensive initiation will start to complete the full integration of your spirit into your physical body.

The Dark Goddess calls you to her Inner Chamber where She holds the a test and a gift for you. The test is your willingness to meet and release the fears within that have secretly holding you back. The gift is freedom, peace, opportunity and prosperity in all its forms. Will you accept her call? Your time for deeper initiation is here!

WHEN YOU SPEAK FROM YOUR HEART
AND SAY THE WORDS YOUR SOUL HAS ONLY DARED TO WHISPER
THAT'S WHEN MIRACLES HAPPEN

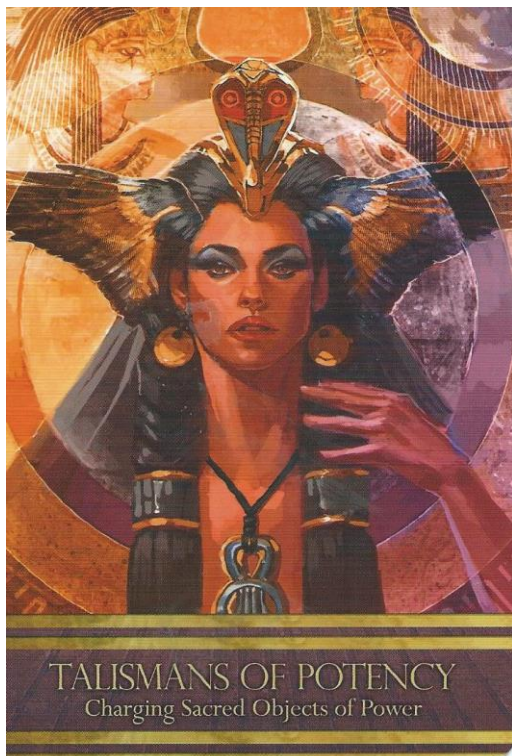

Step 6 My Beloved Universe my heart is so full of love for you and the joy you bring to my life. Sometimes it seems inadequate to put into words the truth of having integrated with you and have the honour to deliver one of your messages of hope. Please give me the card that ties all the others together for a quantum leap, a quickening, a vibrational shift so that I can come totally from heart in following my purpose that was assigned for this moment on time.

Thank you for the Card

“Talisman of Prophecy”

CHARGING SACRED OBJECTS OF POWER

My Dearest Beloved “Talisman of Prophecy” what is it that I need to do to make a quantum leap?

So child here we are at the culmination of our journey. A journey that has highlighted all that seeks to hold you back but more importantly it has revealed your truth about your purpose. So what is prophecy, it is the willingness to surrender ego so that truth can filter through to hearts that are ready to receive.

We are entering a new age a time of expansion at an accelerated pace as the earth moves through to a new dimension. For Man to be ready for that, they need to find their way back to self so we need you to dedicate your life totally to this cause. We do not even hesitate in asking because we see and feel your heart, so dedicated and passionate to the advancement of the inhabitants of earth. We know too that sometimes you desire more for those who are not truly ready and we need you to let that go – we want you to purely concentrate the mysteries on those who are hungry. Be discerning about true initiates because more energy is wasted on those that are half baked that could be poured into those who are truly starting to ignite their light. You can't be hungry for everyone beautiful child. You have to keep moving forward we have already seen the delay in advancement because you are waiting on people.

We are certainly not asking you to abandon any of them but it is the level of energy that is expended that needs to be regulated. You are now required to keep one day a week free where you solely work on expanding your speaking career there is much to be done here and it will not be sufficient to just fit it in with everything else. Next Cycle is your Abundance and Power year and we will be giving you tools of power to alter the harmonics of matter and create the outcome that will move you forward. You must follow every synchronicity, nothing is chance, and everything is a door that must be opened.

How will you help me make this vibrational shift?

We will share these in Amentii, Sekhmet is keen to walk with you and Djehuti has much to impart. You are starting to ground yourself into the earth and whilst we know that this is not palatable for you it is necessary otherwise you won't be seen.

We will remind you when your vibration lowers and will help you keep your eyes on your vision. In the next 12 months we will be opening doors and creating pathways – just be ready to take action.

We charge you to follow the format you put down in step 1 in everything you do, when you are asked what you do, you are a keynote speaker on “Becoming the best version of yourself”, published Author and an authority in the field of using Metaphysics to create an empowered life. You must own this, immerse in this, be this.

We will help you hone the speech that will get you in the door and then we will give the true speech

We will inspire your vision to see that the answer does not just lie here in Australia, tell Sam you are coming to India with him next year.

Follow our instructions on charring your new crystal using the Rays as the healing force. This will be a wand of extraordinary power and we will show you how to use it to move the energy paths

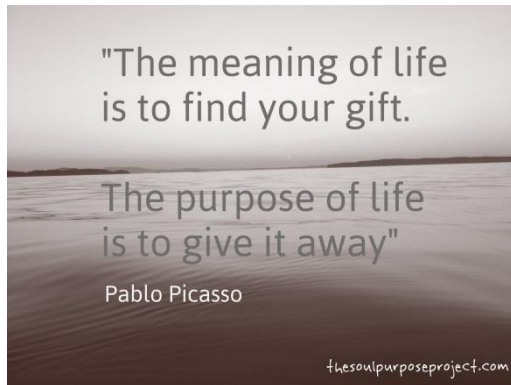

There is so much we need to share, so much to show you, so it is vital we have time together.

Card's Actual meaning

Sacred Tools and Objects can become an extension of your energy field, focusing your power and intention, helping you heal the split between spirit and matter and learning to bring physical matter more deeply into the light and life. You are encourage to work with sacred materials in a conscious way to your own healing and enjoyment of the material world as part of your spiritual practice. Your love for the physical world of matter is a gift to the earth too

Something that has lain on my heart for two years or more:

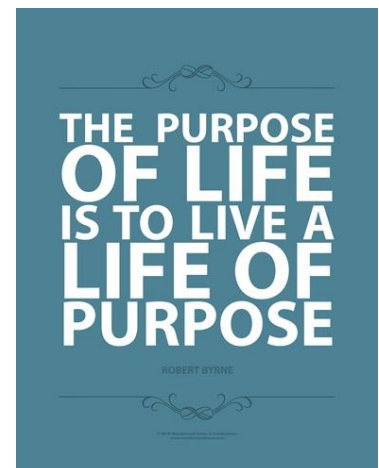

You planted the seed of my future quietly in my heart and it took a journey of many years to cross the desert of isolation, fear and lack of self-belief to retrieve it. Through this Star process you reminded me of what I would do as a child, putting seals on the earth to protect it and help the people to remember – I went to sleep to that dream in my youth and here it is again revitalized and invigorated with passion and love. When you first awakened it I have to say I was a little reluctant, but that reluctance drew to the surface my self-hatred and I am grateful for that because it was through that journey that I found me.

My passion for reaching a wider audience is that we need a quantum shift, a power shift of energy that pulls our vibration clear of Hertzian energy and allows people to wake up, wake up and find their true self. I know that that energy will happen through integrating the rays and allowing that powerful light to shine into the hearts of men, striking the God spark and bursting it into a passionate flame of desire to connect back to its true one self

What will change in my life when I acquire it?

Peace that passes all understanding. The knowledge that I have run the good race that I have stayed true to my promise to the Universe is all I desire. Externally very little will have changed because what you see is what you get but internally my world will be filled with the light of the universe and like Noot I will glisten with the light of a million stars. Although my companions of the shadows will be there to keep me humble I will no longer fight them but embrace them as the loving friends that they are, vigilant in showing me any disquiet that may steal my energy calling me back to the path of faith and love.

I don't know what the next 10 years will present I am just content in knowing that wherever you send me that you will be there. I wish I could give everyone a taste of the love I have for you, that they could rise above their earthly cares and see that everything is beautiful, the sadness, the anger, frustrations and joys of this journey, that they could fall in love with the idea that they are more precious than gold to You. Sometimes I feel that I cannot adequately impart this to create enough passion in them to rise above the trivial beliefs in their life but as I sit with Yeshua and share with him and hear his frustrations that he had through his journey I have to understand that only a small few will seek and be content that even a crack will widen eventually and the masks will fall away.

It is so hard sometimes to share the world that we have together as it is so foreign to many and I understand that it would seem surreal, a fantasy maybe even delusional and I often fear that it will scare those on the journey because they don't want to let go of their identity to find their true self but I have to trust that if you say post it then there is someone who needs to hear this and that someone will be a sacred difference maker.

Thank you for having faith in me, I want nothing more than to live my purpose in the glory of your light, to free the minds of man from old strangling beliefs. To connect them back to source so that they too can see the world I know and love.

What would be a word or small phrase I could use to trigger a positive response when said to help you move quickly through this shift:

“Purpose from the heart”

I think that the most beautiful song in the world sums up where I am at:

The road now leads onward, as far as can be
Winding lanes, and hedgerows in threes
By purple mountains and ‘round every bend
All roads lead to you
There is no journey’s end
Here is my heart and I give it to you
Take me with you across this land
These are my dreams, so simple and few
Dreams we hold in the palm of our hands
