THE POWER OF OUR CORE VALUES

As we collectively transition from the 4 energy of 2020 {endurance, rebuilding solid foundations, establishing new personal + universal processes} into the 5 energy of 2021, {a revolutionary changing of the guard, with freedom as the prize} there will be more trials, tests of faith and plot twists attempting to throw us off the course of our destiny

Up the Ante

2021 will be a combustible and innovative year.

2020 has nothing on 2021.

2021 is not for the faint of heart.

The ante has just been upped.

These big societal shifts have forced many of us to examine the lives we're living and whether or not they're a true reflection of ourselves and the ultimate vision we have for our life.

Here's the thing: any time we're faced with a major life transition - whether it's a global pandemic, a relationship ending; the death of someone near to us; or even a shift and major up-level in our thinking - its an opportunity to reflect on our personal values and assess whether they are aligned with our true self.

How we navigate this huge transition is governed by how well we can use our Intrinsic Emotional Needs to create a frequency so our Conscious Based Core Values can determine our Destiny

Challenge to see beyond the physical form of our attachments to objects, money, status, power and all the other manifestations of the physical world, to your spiritual values. People often suffer great anguish because they believe that they must possess a particular person, place, or thing to be happy. And yet the ability to love unconditionally is opposing to attachment.

What exactly are values and why are they so important?

Values are a vital component on your path to purpose and play a central role when making decisions about all areas of your life. From what you eat, to how you love, your deservedness and your ultimate mastery of life.

Values are the principles and beliefs that guide our behaviour.
