

LIBERATION

HOUSE 10
AUGUST 2023

THE FINAL STEP
When you know that you know that you know. Provides the energy to gain from the lesson

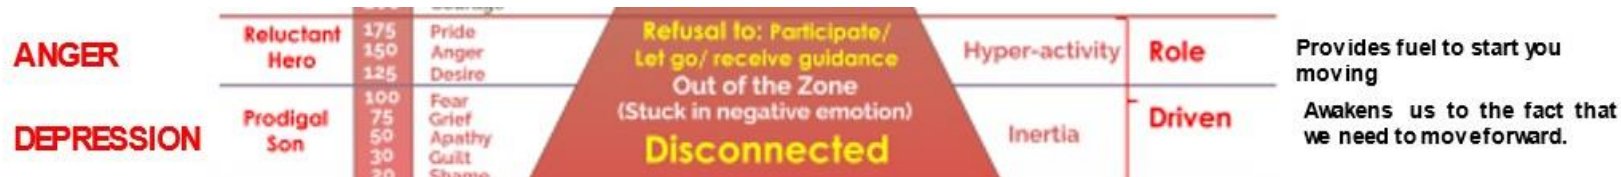

Brings light to the situation

Teaches us that we must let go of the need to control and go inside for the answer.

Provides fuel to start you moving

Awakens us to the fact that we need to move forward.

Power comes from awareness of energy drain,
Transformation comes from choice

This is the Barrenness - Sheol nothing can grow here. It represents outward focus and ignorance of inward Transformation

Sheol, the barren womb, the land never satisfied with water, and the fire that never says, "Enough."

Nigredo

This refers to a dissolving of hope wherein we surrender to the abyss – the darkening of our perspectives.

We come to new life only through the death experience. The key is to embrace that process of suffering with your support. Let the energy pull you down and stay engaged.

The blackening is related to the annual flooding of the Nile when everything is washed away. All that is left is the black silt which is rich in future possibilities

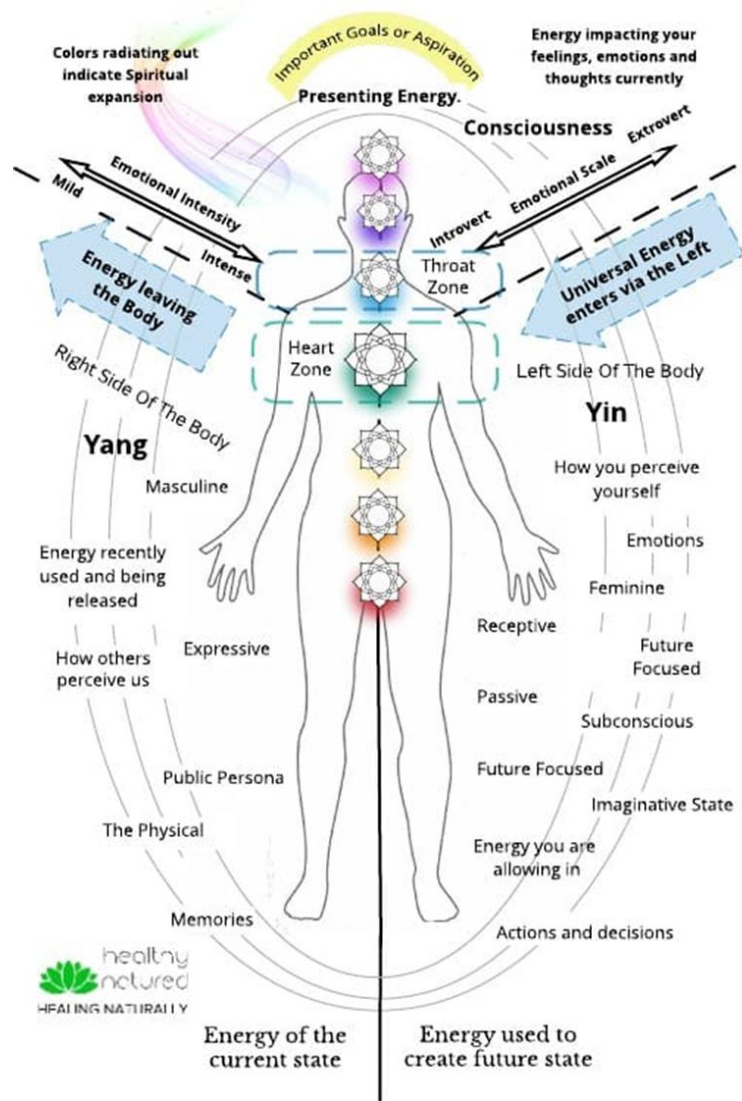

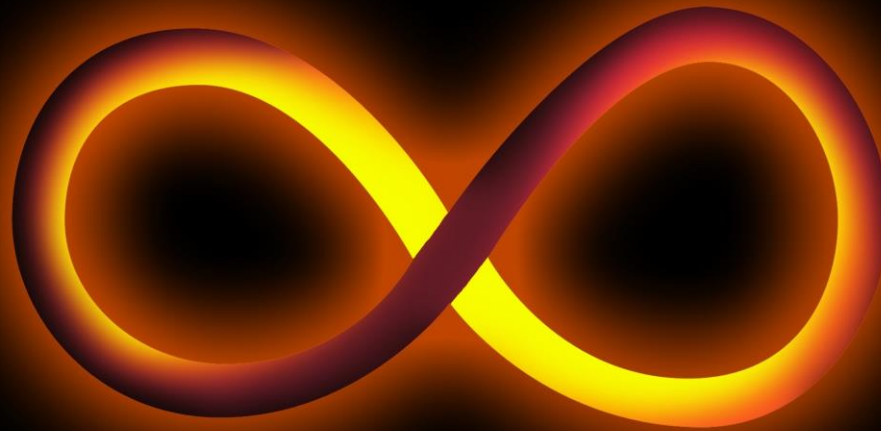

The Word

means expectation

When we are caught in a mirror world, we expect the outside to change.

“Inside, You hold the seed of unlimited potential & infinite possibility,
To make it grow outward you must learn to,
believe in you”

Major and Minor Arcana

Major Cards

Minor Cards

WHEEL OF FORTUNE represents bigger life lessons, influences, and events. It is part of the MAJOR ARCANA.

Cards in the MINOR ARCANA deal with smaller day-to-day occurrences.

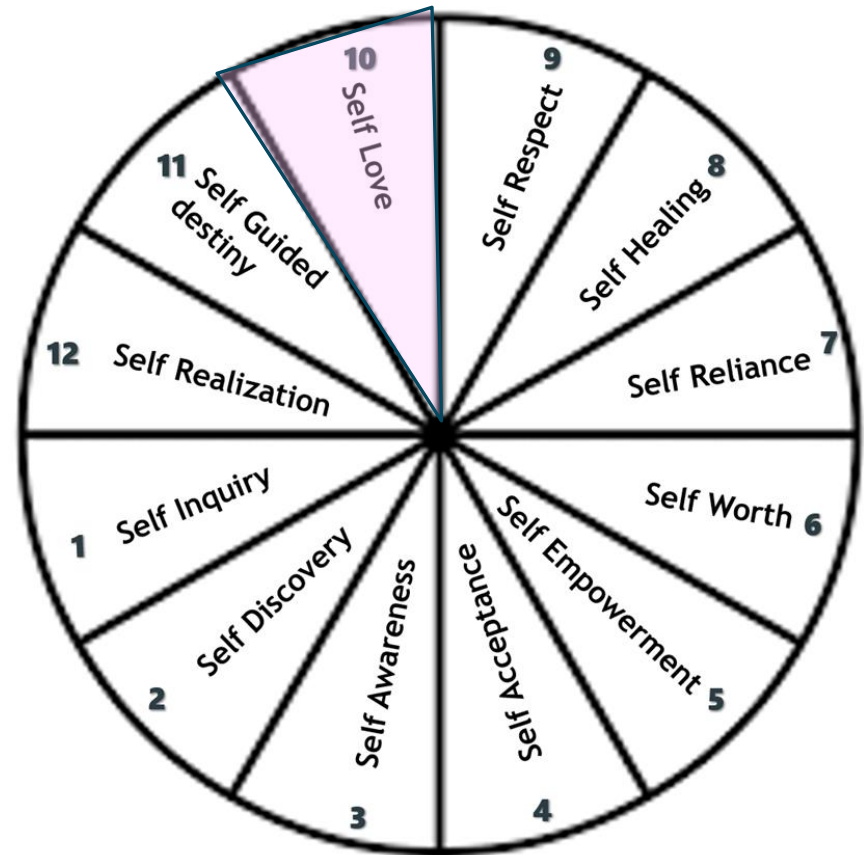

The Tarot system focuses on personal responsibility. Meaning the underlying persuasion of each card places the responsibility of life events squarely on the individual.

We're in charge of our lives, and the consequences of our thoughts and deeds shape our lives.

The 10th House is Ruled by The WHEEL OF FORTUNE, the 10th card in the major arcana and presents a “massive opportunity” to redirect and change your circumstances.

We always have access to our UNLIMITED POTENTIAL

The WHEEL OF FORTUNE rules the 10th House

The Wheel of Fortune is about consequence.

. Although we've recognised that sometimes "stuff happens" this card also addresses the cyclical nature of life.

Simply put, this card is a message that says, "What goes around, comes around." we should consider our actions and how they are affecting ourselves and others around us.

It is about Conscious Thought

Remember Life doesn't happen to you
it emanates from you

When we approach our lives with this in mind, we tend to invest more quality time in our Emotional vibration, thoughts and actions.

Power comes from awareness of energy drain,
Transformation comes from choice

It is a tool, a compass, an axle, and a guide to flip the narrative of your life. Reed says. “In its position, the Wheel of Fortune comes after a person chooses to explore life on their own terms versus what they were CONDITIONED TO DO, THINK, OR FEEL.”

Its place in the major arcana reminds us of the power we possess to make change.”

The Wheel of Fortune

The Riddle of Constant Change

“I have a riddle for you. If you answer correctly, you may pass, for you will truly understand the nature of the Universe and the precious wisdom of the tarot. There are four creatures of mighty power: one bears water, one soars the heights, one has the strength of the earth, and the other the presence of majesty. What can be found between them?”

The Wheel of Fortune is highly symbolic, more than most other cards.

Many small images are printed on the card's face, and all have figurative meanings.

Starting with the centre of the card, you'll see the focal point, the orange Wheel.

The Wheel symbolises the becoming of Reality that surrounds us

It expresses the transformations that have already occurred and those made possible by our choices or chance.

When the colour Orange is seen within the Tarot cards, it indicates a time or situation that will require

ACTION, INTUITION AND COURAGE.

Orange is a combination of the Red and Yellow Rays, and its healing power is greater than the two individual colours alone.

Orange represents

VITALITY, DYNAMIC ENERGY AND HEALTH.

Orange brings about an EMOTIONAL RELEASE OF ENERGY

Orange - Sacral Chakra. – the CENTRE OF YOUR SELF WORTH AND ABILITY TO CREATE IN THE PHYSICAL WORLD

Because Orange deals with our ability to procreate, the fertility of THE EMPRESS is linked and influenced by its' vibrancy.

10 Unlimited Potential is the substance of Nothingness

The number of The Wheel of Fortune is 10.

10 is often seen as a combination of 0 and 1. Nothing and the first manifestation.

The Creator represents 10 therefore because the Creator makes something out of nothing.

X also represents both DESTINY and FATE, as well as the twists and turns of life that surprise us all.

Remember your Fate is what you have directed – your destiny is to be your life path as you travel through life (X)

The Wheel is composed of 3 rings which from the centre outward represents

- CREATIVE FORCE,
- FORMATIVE POWER,
- THE MATERIAL WORLD

The MIDDLE WHEEL contains the alchemical symbols for MERCURY, SULFUR, WATER and SALT – the building blocks of life and the four elements – and represents formative power.

The Wheel of Tarot speaks the Law of Ator'. (the Egyptian goddess of destiny).

Starting with the centre of the card, you'll see the focal point, the orange Wheel.

The eight spokes in the wheel represent the Universal radiant energy representing the eight Egyptian deities, four male and four female gods, known as the Ogdoad.

It also represents the eight Sabbats of the year.

Numerologically 8 is the Influence through

Nun & Naunet = Primeval Waters - Chaos
Heh & Hehet = Boundlessness
Kek & Keket = Infinite Darkness

The Ogdoad, also called the Hehu or Infinites, were the celestial rulers of a cosmic age.

Considered to have come long before the Egyptian religious system currently recognised, the Ogdoad were concerned with the preservation and flourishing of the celestial world and later—as well as indirectly—the formation of the human race.

The Outer Circle Represents The Material World

The outer circle contains Hebrew letters from the top right and anticlockwise –and is the unspoken name of God (the Tetragrammaton).

WHAT IS TETRAGRAMMATON?

TETRAGRAMMATON IS A GREEK WORD MEANING 'THE FOUR LETTERED NAME', REPRESENTING THE NAME OF GOD IN HEBREW, YHWH . IN METAPHYSICS, TETRAGRAMMATON IS A MATHEMATICAL EQUATION FOR THE ESSENCE OF THE UNIVERSE. IT HAS BEEN DEPICTED THROUGHOUT HISTORY AS A PENTAGRAM IN WHICH EACH POINT SIGNIFIES AN ELEMENT - EARTH, WIND, FIRE, WATER, AND SPIRIT - THE 5 ELEMENTS OF GOD AND NATURE.
